Statutory Rules and Orders issued by the Ministry of Defence

MINISTRY OF DEFENCE

New Delhi, the 6th May 1950

No. S. R. O. 6.—In exercise of the powers conferred by Section 6 of the Indian Army Act, 1911 (VIII of 1911), the Central Government is pleased to prescribe the Commanders Artillery, Commanders Army Group Artillery and Commanders Corps Artillery as the officers by whom the powers, which, under the said Act, may be exercised by an officer commanding a brigade, shall, as regards persons subject to the said Act who are serving under the command of the said officers, be exercised.

No. S. R. O. 7.—In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (2) of Section 12 of the National Cadet Corps Act, 1948 (XXXI of 1948) the Central Government is pleased to direct that the following amendment shall be made in the notification of the Government of India in the Min. of Def. No. 1281, dated the 31st July 1948, namely:—

In the said notification, for the words "United Provinces", the words "Uttar Pradesh" shall be substituted.

No. S. R. O. 8.—The following bye-laws for regulating the control and supervision of places where dangerous and offensive trades are carried on in the Lucknow Cantonment, made in exercise of the powers conferred by clause (17) of Section 282 and Section 283 of the Cantonments Act, 1924 (II of 1924), are hereby published for general information the same having been previously published, approved and confirmed by the Central Government as required by sub-section (1) of Section 284 of the said Act, namely:—

1. For the purpose of these bye-laws, a place within the limits of the Lucknow Cantonment used—

- (a) for stacking or melting tallow, or
- (b) for boiling bones, offal or blood, for curing and storing hides, bones or skins or for tanning or
- (c) as a soap making house, oil boiling house, dyeing house or tannery, or
- (d) as a brick kiln, pottery or lime kiln, or
- (e) as any other manufactory or place of business from which an offensive or unwholesome smell or smoke or noise may rise, or
- (f) as mills including mills making flour, dal, oil, mills of cotton, rice, ginning or baling factories and any other manufactory worked by electricity, steam, oil, petrol or gas engines or any other mechanical contrivance, or
- (g) as a yard or depot for trade in hay, straw, cotton, thatching grass wood, coal, petroleum or any other explosive, or inflammable material, is a place where a dangerous or offensive trade is carried on.

2. No person shall use any place within Cantonment limits for carrying on dangerous or offensive trade unless he has been granted permission in writing in this behalf by the Board on annual payment of such fees and on such conditions as the Board may impose.

3. The Cantonment Board may, by notice in writing, require any owner or person in charge of such house, room, place or premises to make such arrangements for the extinction of any out-break of fire therein as may be specified in the notice.

4. Every owner or person in charge of any such house, room, place or premises shall at all times keep the house, room, place or premises in which any dangerous or offensive trade as mentioned in bye-law 1 is carried on in a clean and sanitary condition.

5. The Cantonment Board may, by notice in writing, require any owner or person in charge of any such house, room, place or premises to provide such ventilation, drains, latrines, urinals or other sanitary convenience or to make such arrangements for the effective disposal of offensive waste products of the process or manufacture and within such time as may be specified in the notice.

6. The Cantonment Board may, by notice in writing, require any owner or person in charge of any such house, room, place or premises to adopt such means for rendering innocuous all gases, effluvia or vapours emitted during the process of working and within such time as may be specified in the notice.

7. The Cantonment Board may, by notice in writing, require any owner or person in charge of any such house, room, place or premises where smoke arises from the use of coal in the furnace or at any other place in the engine house, to use such apparatus for consuming the smoke arising from the engine or the furnace as may be specified in the notice.

8. (a) No owner or person in charge of a mill shall cause the mill to be worked beyond the hours prescribed by the Cantonment Board by a resolution from time to time, and no owner or person in charge of a mill or any other person shall fix or use any siren or any mechanical signal to any mill within the limits of the Lucknow Cantonment.

(b) For the purpose of this bye-law "a mill" includes all premises engaged in the manufacture of flour, dal, oil and any other form of manufacture carried out by an electric, steam, oil or petrol engine or by any other mechanical contrivance.

9. (a) Any person committing a breach of any of these bye-laws shall, on conviction by a Magistrate, be punishable with fine which may extend to fifty rupees and in case of a continuing breach, with an additional fine which may extend to five rupees for every day during which such breach continues after conviction for the first such breach.

(b) Failure to comply with the notice referred to in bye-law 3, 5, 6 and 7 shall also be deemed to be a breach of the respective bye-laws.

(No. 12/13/G/L&C/50.)

No. S.R.O. 9.—The following bye-laws for regulating the grant of licences to job porters within the Dagshai Cantonment, made by the Cantonment Board, Dagshai, in exercise of the powers conferred by clauses (25), (26) and (27) of Section 282 and Section 283 of the Cantonments Act, 1924 (II of 1924), are published for general information, the same having been previously published, approved and confirmed by the Central Government as required by sub-section (1) of Section 284 of the said Act, namely:—

1. In these bye-laws unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context:—

(a) "job porter" means and includes any person plying for hire to carry goods or articles of any description.

(b) "hire" or "ply for hire" means a service for a period not exceeding twenty four hours, or which would ordinarily be performed within twenty four hours and further means ordinarily plying for hire and does not include casual service.

Job porters

2. (a) No person shall ply for hire as a job porter within the limits of the Cantonment except under a licence granted in this behalf by the Cantonment Board.

(b) A licence to ply for hire as a job porter shall be issued by the Executive Officer on an application being made to him in this behalf and on payment of the fee specified in bye-law 3 and shall be granted on the conditions detailed in bye-law 5.

(c) At the time of issue of a licence the Executive Officer shall also give to the licensee on payment of the fee prescribed in bye-law 3 a metal number badge to be worn by him while working as a job porter.

3. A fee of rupees two for each year or part of a year shall be paid for each licence issued to a "job porter",

4. The rates to be charged by job porters shall be as fixed by the Cantonment Board, from time to time.

5. Every licence issued under bye-law 2 shall be granted subject to the following conditions, namely:—

(a) The licensee shall at all times when hired or plying for hire wear the metal number badge on his right upper arm in a conspicuous manner.

(b) The licensee shall not, except for reasonable cause, refuse to be hired.

(c) The licensee shall, at all times, when hired or plying for hire have with him his licence and shall, if required to do so, exhibit such licence to the hirer or to any Magistrate, Police Officer, Member of the Cantonment Board, or Officer of the Cantonment Board authorised in this behalf, and shall state his name and residence if called upon to do so.

(d) A licence shall not be transferable.

(e) For a breach of any of the conditions in clauses (a) to (d), in addition to any other penalty that may be incurred, the licence may be suspended or cancelled by an order in writing of the Executive Officer.

Penalty.—Any person who commits a breach of any of these bye-laws shall, on conviction by a Magistrate, be punishable with fine which may extend to fifty rupees and in the case of a continuing contravention with an additional fine which may extend to five rupees for every day during which such contravention continues after conviction for the first such contravention.
